

- 1 Choose the correct pronoun.
- a) Is this your/yours hairdryer?
 - b) Are these newspapers my/mine?
 - c) That helicopter is their/theirs.
 - d) These tweezers are her/hers.
 - e) The green barn is our/ours.
- 2 Translate into English.
- a) De gledet seg til det. / Dei gledde seg til det. _____

 - b) Han giftet seg i Las Vegas. / Han gifta seg i Las Vegas. _____

 - c) Hun skadet seg forrige uke. / Ho skadde seg førre veka. _____

 - d) Fred skyndte seg. / Fred skunda seg. _____

- 3 It is / it was / there is / there are / there was / there were
- a) _____ somebody here to see you last night.
 - b) _____ not the first time I've seen him drunk.
 - c) I don't think _____ any buns left.
 - d) When I was a kid _____ snowstorms every winter.
 - e) I think _____ three or four raspberry bushes in my sister's garden before.
 - f) Look! _____ a huge amount of snow outside! _____ completely white!
 - g) They say _____ never any sunshine around here, but _____ sunny today.
 - h) _____ nobody in the house when I came home.
 - i) _____ anybody from Denmark here today?
 - j) We are convinced that _____ at least 200 wolves in this area at present.
 - k) She thinks _____ further to Venezuela than to Colombia.
 - l) _____ three of them and they came at night.
 - m) My aunt told me that in the old _____ an old dirt track to the next village.
 - n) She thought _____ two or three explosions.
 - o) What was that? I think _____ the dogs barking.
 - p) Do you think _____ colder now?
 - q) Excuse me, do you know if _____ a hotel around here?
 - r) Who is that gentleman? I think _____ Mr Roberts, the local GP.
 - s) _____ a lot of talk about global warming these days.