

1 Insert the correct conjunctions.

- a) Is your mother Italian _____ is she from Spain?
- b) I am allergic to nuts, _____ I can eat almonds.
- c) I have a big brother _____ he teases me all the time.

2 Insert who, whom, which or that.

- a) I received a telephone call from the lady _____ lives next door.
- b) The children, _____ were among the best swimmers in the country, won a lot of prizes.
- c) The children _____ were among the best swimmers won a lot of prizes.
- d) The pizza, _____ was bigger than normal, tasted delicious.
- e) The pizza _____ was bigger than normal tasted delicious.
- f) The house _____ burned down was built in 1864.
- g) Freddy, _____ was once hopelessly in love with my sister, got married last Saturday.
- h) My dog, _____ is a miniature dachshund, will be three years old next summer.
- i) The boys with _____ I play tennis every week played a practical joke on me last time.
- j) This must be the only elk _____ can do this trick!
- k) My old school, _____ is one of the best in the country, is going to be refurbished soon.
- l) The thieves _____ stole my cameras were caught by the police.
- m) Two of the applicants, _____ were both 25 years, were offered top jobs in the company.
- n) The computer _____ impressed me most was the white one.
- o) Lisa's uncle, _____ used to take her out in his sailing boat when she was little, died recently.
- p) Beethoven, _____ is one of the most extraordinary composers the world has ever seen, wrote his 9th symphony when he was almost completely deaf.
- q) Casa Battló, _____ was constructed by Antonio Gaudí, is a remarkable building.
- r) The little tree house _____ I built when I was a kid is still there.
- s) My wife's favourite TV series, _____ is not my favourite, is "Sopranos".
- t) The islets in the Oslo fjord, _____ are still exactly the same as when I was a kid, are my favourite places to escape to.
- u) A man _____ has always fascinated me is Roald Amundsen.